OMERA ACQUIRES GIGANT ITALIA

Fig. Omera Headquarters

Omera continues its growth and announces the acquisition of the brand and of the movable and intangible assets of GIGANT, a historic Italian company specialized in the design and production of hydraulic presses for cold and hot forging.

With this operation, the Vicenza-based company, which has recently celebrated 70 years of history and which in 2022 achieved a turnover of 24 million euros, strengthens its already significant presence as a technological hub in the machine tools field for sheet metal forming.

Omera brand is internationally recognized for the design and production of trimming beading machines, energy-saving mechanical and hydraulic presses, and automatic lines for turnkey production processes.

Massimo Carboniero CEO

“With this acquisition – explains Massimo Carboniero, CEO and co-owner of Omera – on the one hand we have launched a strong signal of vitality with consequent growth prospects and, on the other hand, we have acquired greater market penetration strength having increased our customer base both in Italy and abroad”.

"We already have an order portfolio that covers almost the whole year - concludes the CEO of OMERA - and there will be further operations in the near future so that OMERA continues to grow also thanks to the high technological level, the quality of its products and the after-sales service worldwide."
